Dear Parents/Carers,

You may remember that last year, our Film Club created an animated short film called 'Save Bobby the Fish'. This went on to win the Into Film 'Film of the Month' and was then further nominated for the Into Film of the year in the Under 11 category. We were due to attend a glitzy, star studded event at Leicester Square, where the awards would be hosted by David Walliams. Unfortunately, Covid-19 put a stop to this.

However, today there was a lot of excitement as the IntoFilm Remote Awards went live. It was hosted by David Walliams and I am very pleased to announce that we won first place!

We are so proud of the effort the children in Film Club put into creating this film. We feel they have expressed a very important message of reducing plastic pollution in their own unique way.

You can watch the award ceremony here.

ITV have been in contact to carry out a Zoom interview – so look out for us on Calendar tomorrow night!

Another huge congratulations to all the children involved. We are so proud of you!

Yours sincerely,

Ms Lees
